

Erin Partin Biography

Erin Partin is delighted to be back performing with the Allentown Symphony Orchestra. Last seen on stage at The Shakespeare Theater of New Jersey, completing her 14th season with the company. Other regional credits include: The Pennsylvania Shakespeare Festival, Great Lakes Theater, The Idaho Shakespeare Festival, The Lake Tahoe Shakespeare Festival, Shakespeare Theatre Company, The Delaware REP (Resident Ensemble Players), and The Milwaukee Repertory Theatre. Some of her favorite roles over the years include: Ophelia (Hamlet), Ariel (The Tempest), Isabella (Measure for Measure), Juliet (Romeo and Juliet), Roxanne (Cyrano De Bergerac), Stella (A Streetcar Named Desire), Lady MacBeth (MacBeth), Hermione (A Winter's Tale), Hermia (A Midsummer Nights Dream), Clarice (The Liar), Princess of France (Love's Labour's Lost), and Ilona Szabo (The Plays the Thing). She received her Masters in Theater at the University of Delaware, Professional Theater Training Program in 2007.